

Dear Grandpa & Grandma Hell,

¿Como estan? Here everything is going well... I am getting transferred to Cuenca tomorrow.

I can't believe it. I have only had 3 wks. here in Guataseo.

Things have been going well here. I am happy & enjoying this time working in the work of God.

It's incredible to teach people & see their faith grow. I have seen lots of people changing their lives for the better.

It's incredible to think of all the positive changes worldwide that are going on through →
